CHAMPABEN WD/O MANGAJI THAKOR THRO SON JASUJI MANGAJI THAKOR

Versus

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE

Appearance:

MR NM KAPADIA for Petitioner

MR SJ DAVE, AGP for Respondent-State.

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 04/07/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1985") by the order dated 24-3-2000, passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City, and she has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of publoic order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. I have heard learned advocate for the petitioner and also perused the material on record. According to learned advocate for the petitioner, the detenu has demanded by way of a representation dated 6-4-2000 to supply certain documents and the authority supplied the same to the petitioner on 3-5-20000 admittedly after a lapse of more than 25 days and that too all the documents as demanded by the petitioner have not been supplied and, therefore, it is a point which is required to be taken into consideration. Learned APP, S.J. Dave has fairly admitted the same.

4. It has been held in a judgment reported in 1982 S.C. 696 in the case of Mohd. Zakir Vs. Delhi Administration and Ors. at head note as under :

> "Detention- Documents relied on by authorities not supplied with grounds of detention- Detention is illegal. "

It has been further held by the Apex Court as under :

> "It is manifest that the question of demanding the documents is wholly irrelevant because it is the constitutional mandate which requires the detaining authority to give the documents relied on or referred to in the order of detention pari passu the grounds of detention in order that the detenu may make an effective representation immediately instead of waiting for the documents to be supplied with."

5. It is the duty of the authority to supply copies of the statements and documents with the detention order. Here in this case, copies of the documents, though relied upon by the authority in passing the impugned order of detention, have not been supplied to the detenu. Therefore, there is infraction of safeguards provided under the provisions of Art.22(5) of the Constitution of India and the petitioner has been deprived of knowing the grounds and making effective representation against the order of detention. Since the petitioner succeeds only on this point, learned advocate for the petitioner does not press any other points.

6. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 24-3-2000 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed. The detenu Champaben Wd/o Mangalji Pujaji Thakor is hereby ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if she is not required to be detained in any other case. Rule is made absolute with no order as to costs.
